HSA Bank does not provide brokerage/investment services; brokerage services are provided by TD Ameritrade, Inc., member FINRA/SIPC/NFA, and investment services are provided by Devenir. HSA Bank, TD Ameritrade, and Devenir are separate, unaffiliated companies and are not responsible for each other's services or policies. Self-directed investment accounts are the sole responsibility of the account owner. Carefully weigh the advantages and disadvantages of investing your HSA funds before doing so. HSA Bank and other business entities receive compensation for providing various services to the funds including an annual asset-based fee for services rendered in association with the investment account. Your ability to replace losses in the investment account may be limited by the annual contribution limits of your HSA. HSA Bank does not offer investment advice.

Investment accounts are not FDIC insured and they are not bank guaranteed. Investment accounts are not a deposit account, or an obligation of HSA Bank, and they may lose value. They are not guaranteed by any federal government agency. Performance data and ratings represent past performance and are not a guarantee of future results. Investment returns and principal value will fluctuate and investors' shares, when sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost.

¹You may begin investing once you have a minimum of $1,000 in your HSA Bank cash account. Only HSA funds above $1,000 in your HSA Bank cash account can be transferred to your investment account.

²Neither HSA Bank, nor Devenir Group, LLC, the third party, can provide investment advice to you on this program. Once you transfer funds from your HSA cash account to HSA investment account, these dollars are no longer covered by applicable FDIC or NCUA insurance. We recommend you speak with a licensed investment advisor or consult the prospectus should you have questions about any investment.
